Mysore State Lottery Rules, 1969—Amendment to Rule 27-A of the.

REFERENCE :—

Government Order No. FD 32 DSC 70, dated 23rd June 1972.

PREAMBLE :—

Under the existing Rule 27-A of the Mysore State Lottery Rules, 1969, ten per cent of the prize amount is being deducted from the amounts of the Bumper and the first three prizes for the purpose of compulsory investment in the National Savings Certificates. The Joint Director of Small Savings and the Director, Mysore State Lottery has now recommended that with a view to boosting up the small savings and to secure more investment in small savings from the winner of the Bumper prize, the existing rate of 10% may be raised to 25% in case of Bumper Prize only.

ORDER No. FD 5 MSL 73, BANGALORE, DATED 19TH FEBRUARY 1973.

Governor is pleased to accept the above suggestion and to direct that the existing rule 27-A of the Mysore State Lottery Rules, 1969 be amended as under :-

For the existing Rule 27-A, the following shall be substituted.

"Rule 27-A—The amounts of the Bumper and the first three prizes shal be paid by the Director of State Lottery through crossed cheques on the Reserve Bank of India, Bangalore. 25 per cent of the amount of the Bumper prizes and 10 per cent of the amount of the first three prizes shall be paid in the form of National Savings Certificates, the type of certificate being left to the choice of the prize winner. For this purpose, the Director may, if necessary, issue two separate cheques-one for the amount to be invested in the prize-winner's name in the National Savings Certificates and the other for the balance of the prize amount.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

T. M. VASUDEVAN,
Under Secretary to Government,
